MEMORANDUM

---

Date: October 16, 2023
To: The Honorable Lauren King, United States District Judge
From: Darcell Prescott
United States Probation Officer
Subject: Jeffrey Dorsey
Case Number: 2:12CR00066LK-001

STATUS REPORT

STATUS:

On October 4, 2023, I submitted a violation report and request for summons alleging Mr. Dorsey violated the conditions of supervised release by consuming marijuana and alcohol. Mr. Dorsey was prepared to admit the violations at the initial appearance originally scheduled on October 20, 2023. Therefore, the initial appearance was stricken, and disposition scheduled before Your Honor on November 1, 2023, at 10:00 a.m.

ADJUSTMENT AND EVALUATION:

Since submitting the violation report and request for summons, Mr. Dorsey obtained a Marinol prescription from his medical provider to aide in pain management in lieu of opiate pain medications. While Marinol contains Tetrahydrocannabinol (THC) and will test positive in a urine test; the medication is a valid prescription and will be obtained from a licensed pharmacy. Mr. Dorsey will not be obtaining marijuana from dispensaries or other sources.

Additionally, Mr. Dorsey is in the process of obtaining a substance use disorder treatment assessment and will be required to comply with all treatment recommendations. Mr. Dorsey is otherwise stable, is employed, and rents his own apartment. He has complied with my directives and maintains regular contact.

RECOMMENDATION:

I have reviewed the Court's Order in United States v. Dimmer. Mr. Dorsey no longer wishes to address the Court regarding medical marijuana given his recent prescription for Marinol. Therefore, I respectfully recommend the Court take no action on the violations and strike the hearing scheduled for November 1, 2023. Both the Assistant United States Attorney, Stephen Hobbs and Defense Attorney Gregory Geist concur with my recommendation.
